TAMIL NEW YEAR CELEBRATION REPORT

On 13th April 2023, Tamil New Year was celebrated in our institutions. Tamil New Year (Puthandu) 2023. Puthandu, according to the Hindu Lunisolar calendar's solar cycle, is the first day of the traditional Tamil New Year. While it is called Vishnu in Kerala, it is Bihu for those in Assam, Baishakhi in Punjab and Pohela Boishakh in West Bengal. On the day of Puthandu, people in Tamil Nadu start the day by visiting temples, and cleaning the house. In parts of Tamil Nadu, the festival is also called 'Chittirai Vishnu'. AS an arrangement of prayer offerings, a tray, comprising three fruits, mango, jackfruit, banana and money in the form of coins, gold or silver jewelry, a mirror, flowers, betel leaves and arecanut, is prepared, Welcoming positive vibes and blessings into the house, floor designs called 'kolams' are made using coloured rice flour at the entrance.

TELUGU NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

Ugadi is the New Year celebration for the people of Andhra Pradesh, and Telangana states in India. It is observed on the first day of the Hindu unipolar calendar month of Chaitra. People start preparing for this festival almost a week before by cleaning their houses and buying new clothes and gifts for the family members. They start their day by taking a special bath followed by oil treatment and then visiting the temple where they pray to God for the good health and prosperity in the coming year. The special food called pachadi is prepared and relished in every household. The pachadi is a prominent Ugadi food that includes all the flavors of sweet, salty, bitter, and sour.. The message of Ugadi festival is to rise above all happiness, sorrow, failure, and success in life and accept it as one's own good.
